2. Procuring Entity's Right to Vary Quantities

The quantity mentioned in the Bid is the minimum approximate quantity that the bidder will have to compulsorily supply to specified destination.

- (a) At the time of award of contract, the quantity of Goods, works or service originally specified in the Bidding Document may be increased or decreased by a specified percentage, but such increase or decrease shall not exceed twenty percent, of the quantity specified in the Bidding Document. It shall be without any change in the unit process or other terms and conditions of the Bid and the conditions of contract.
- (b) If the procuring Entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procure less than the quantity specified in the Bidding Document due to change in circumstances, the Bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the conditions of contract.
- (c) In case of procurement of Goods or services, additional quantity may be procured by placing a repeat order on the rates and conditions of the original order. However, the additional quantity will not be more than 50% of the value of Goods of the original contract and shall be within one month from the date of expiry of last supply. If the supplier fails to do so, the Procuring Entity will be free to arrange for
